Submission points

Plan section	Provision	Support/oppose	Reasons	Decision sought
[General]	[General]	Amend	The section that we purchased from Mawhera (137 Peel Street, Westport) was one of many given to them by the council/local body decades ago during the formation of the town plan. Apart from a financial point, it has NO historical or cultural significance in that it was never used as food gathering or camp site and therefore, apart from being mentioned as a legal land sale, should have no further SASM wording use against it.	Removal of any SASM ruling/mentions to all land/sections that have been legally purchased from the local Iwi that are within a town/borough within the past 50 years.
