[General]	[General]	Oppose	Already as one drives along the pristine road between Greymouth and Barrytown, there are natural lowland environments being destroyed. Enough is enough. There will be cartage of minerals, there will be road infrastructure changes, there will be sites changed in the abstraction beyond repair in the natural sense. These are the drives and the quiet untouched parts of New Zealand that people pine for and come to view. This is the west coast. Zdont destroy what beauty you have.	No mineral abstraction to be allowed in the Barrytown area.
