The Submission: Tuwhenu Moriori Tua imi Ihi Re TTTP. Using what orig did that failed /timed out adding to it.

I am writing about Pre-maori History. I seems this is excluded from NZ School History. The late Michael King wrote about Moriori. a name the new comers known as Maori called my maternal Ancestors which in old Maori reo meant : Noisy swimmers.

I am the oldest living Authority in Pre-Maori. My direct Ancestor stood up in Northland and said: Who is this strange tua imi that eats others and themselves. The set Tapu e tapu on all Maori (Curse of Curses) He set his 2 Taniwhai on Maori. He buried a carving near the ares depicting him doing so. I was discovered about 1920, disappeared then turned up again in more recent yrs It depicts my Ancestor Ieriki Ieriki (King of Kings,)A 4,000 yrs old title of continuous royal line going back over that whole period. Note; where we came from and who we are is our IP at this time Our language is not Maori but mostly roots are the oldest known spoken language. The carving depicts My ancestor sitting in a boat like structure, Taniwhai each end. Same identical depiction found in pottery other side of the Pacific. Our artifacts found halfway across the world in various places Kon Tiki (The Sun God), was a name Some Pacific Islanders gave to one of our Ieriki Ieriki. Friendly Polynesians who met my ancestors were taught all sorts including deep sea navigation. We were 1st to find and live in Easter Island (Another story.) Thor Heyerdahl called my ancestors the greatest navigators who ever lived.. We discovered Tuwhenu (Oldest surviving name for NZ about yr 700 AD about Yr 1000 Moriori decided to settle here on more perm basis, seme of our people had already stayed behind here, Waitaha People have same history as us. there were about 4 diff Peoples-races living here then .We brought Kumara and a lot more from South America including Nikau palms. Maorialso named us; The Old People.

Some yrs back a study was done to find out why Maori got drunk as. I was found that 2 parts of their DNA was missing. caused such Moriori have completely diff DNA, # x my mothers DNA was tested 3x diff places. . She was last surviving Grandchild of 2 only surviving known family members of the then Ieriki Ieriki who got captured during the Maori Holocaust out there at Rekohu (Chattams Is,) Once my ancestor heard his 2 children taken by Maori and things were not good for Moriori he gave up with conditions(I heard these stories on Mares as a kid told to me by descendants of Maori who were there Including Nanny, my late step- mothers Mum who was wife of the Paramount Chief who was direct decedent of one of the 2 chiefs out at Rekohu who put my Ancestor Ieriki ieriki to death.

Said ancestor threatened Tapu e Tapu if the 2 girls were harmed. They survived, the older was my G-grandmother Maori always said the younger sister, her 2nd husband was: The Kingmaker..

When I was in primary school some maori kids were giving a girl in my class a hard time, I pke to Nanny about this,, she came to school the next day and blew the tutai out of the bullys and told them never to pick on Moriori. I had by this time become close friends with this girl She was half Morior some of her family full, she taught me Moriori I already knew old Maori reo. The last Moriori slaves held, south of Hawera until not long before WW1. Out at Rekohu-- When 1st Magistrate went out there it was 10 yrs later the remaining Moriori were released.

The Magistrate Shand wrote about Moriori history etc as survivors out there told him a lot of our history Etc,

The lesson I learnt off Nanny was put past behind and make up. A wise woman and true lady. As such I have respected most Maori, also for another reason. When Maori 1st came here, they wiped out and ate most males of Peoples here. Kept some females. This is historical fact. .

When I was a kid most younger Maori could not give a stuff about their history, went on for yrs. I learnt from the elders I could write a lot more but the olny thig Maori left us was our IT Some yrs back was a nove to class all indigenou pre European persons here as Maori, might as well say all Europeans are Yanks or such.. Crazy & racist as. We have put up with this B/S for well over 150 yrs, Maori say racist treatment of them , Ho bloody ho. Join the clan see the world.

In 2002 As Hereditary Ieriki ieriki, I was in negotiations with Hon.

Margaret Wilson in recognizing our Legal Entity. This was recognized & later Ratified By NZ Govt and Crown. I worked with the late Hon.

Parekura Horomia as our Rntity is the oldest legal Tribal Authority in Tuwhenu (NZ) Set up Project.Tutanga (origin) Research Unit, which he gave his blessing and our place of meeting Waiau Whare Wa Nui.Therefore gazetted as such.

Promises of funding never happened, but that is another story, one that Hon. Horomia told myself about. All part of trying to say Moriori are Maori and other total disgusting carry-ons to pervert the real history of NZ. That is unacceptable. As a kid and young adlt I visited sites the elders told me of, found lost pa's around Taranaki 2 sites there I kept to myself, one is under water and Pre Maori.

I can truly feel for the indigenou Australians my People-Race on the same Road. Maori tried to wipe us out on Mainland NZ then later Chathams, now pen pushing huas frying to do so,

On my Fathers side a whole lot of NZ history starting before Captain Cook set sail. my 1st Paternal ancestor to come here was in 1864 to set up a Royal Commission, he brought thev likes of von Haast with him.

In 1964 a 100 yrs later name changed to DSIR. Before ww1, 3 families changed their family names. Our Family, the 4th related to the other 3 slightly changed. long story.

I mention this because people ask how come you are Moriori with German Name. The shorter version of my surname is actually a old Saxon title.

Anyway, I feel the true early story of NZ should be part of NZ history or it is a sham . When asked what is the difference between Moriori & Maori. I say simple version Maori were the 1st tourists here, came to lunch, buggers stayed and had us for tea as well.

I hope that someone see's some common sense and puts Moriori in it's rightful place in NZ History otherwise simple facts are Education Dept & such will be part of spreading un-truths of NZ history, omitting the real history for a watered down fake history.

It is bad enough a certain twit out at the Chathams was on Prime TV earlier in the YR saying Moriori were Never on the Mainland In Maoridom, this is known as a plastic Maori, a Maori who sells out their own people for money, this twit was Moriori version.

Go in peace: James: Ieriki ieriki

Note : Few decades ago, Min Health looked into why Maori go so drunk. It ead found missing 2 parts DNA most have that allow them to handle alcohol, Moriori are not missing this DNA.

Moriori whom Maori also named: The Old People came to Tuwhenu (NZ) via South America well over 1000 yrs ago discovered NZ some settled here, some explored Pacific Tongans and other friendly Peoples called My Ancestor Kon Tiki (The sun King as many of us were tall and European looking reddish or red/blond hair

Thor Heyerdahl Called us the greatest navigators ever. We were 1st to discover the Navel of the world (Easter Is). Pitcan and others. Our artifacts in S-.America and said Islands our language is oldest known spoken Language. We brought kumara, nikau palms from South America and kowhai trees only found 2 places, here & Easter Is. Maori Clain Maui showed them the way to NZ. And the holocaust carried out in Chathams (Rekohu) Maori had to ? 3 european ships to transport I them out there, sick as when got there.

1st govt official out there who was also magistrate the 300 orso surviving Moriori told Shand about our history fate of the 2 daughtrrs of the Ieriki ieriki who was murdered. I was told also same by Maori elders on Maraes as a kid. My father had a 2nd family, his 2nd wife was direct descendant of one of the 2 Taranaki chiefs who went out to the Chathams. The 2 chiefs later had fall out. It was 10 yrs after Shand arrived Chathams that last Moriori released from slavery. In South Taranaki, it was not long before WW! same happened. I was at school with kids who were Moriori and learnt the language. I spoke Maori on the Marae. with my stepmothers relations.. not the crap they speak now.

A short dista.ce from where I am writing is At the residence of Waiau Whare Wa Nui (Morning star place of meeting/ we do not call our places of meetings maraes). This is one one in NZ. Gazetted as such by late Hon , Parekura Horomia.

Is; Rapahoe in our language Disturbed waters.. w the walkway built between there and Cobden around the point was built by my ancestor People

1st Maori who came here to West Coast and looked for the green gold were Taranaki Maori who grabbed locals over east side of S.I and used them for carriers/ porters & long pork (For the pot -- to eat) Oddly A new/then publication put out By a NZ heritage trust with Helen Clark as one main bosses, wrote about how Moriori / Waitaha (same People) gave Maori a Hard time and they tried to escape through passes lower West Coast met other same People kicked their butts. It was the Chief Te Rapraha who was boss of this lot back then only Maori otherwise in S-Is was where he hung out, the Top of the S I sounds area

Gets better, . PM Helen Clarke declared all Pre- Maori & Maori be called Maori... In her last term of office. either join with Maori or no treaty settlement Out-right criminal

That woman near finished what Maori failed to do, wipe My Ancient; Mother's People out..Maori some yrs back gave my Ancestor who was murdered and eaten out the Chathams insignia back to me. It was about 2000 when a family member was putting out family history together. we fully discovered my mothers mysterious Grandmother was the snr surviving member of the 4,000 yr old royal line My mother her only living grandchild. She decided I take over as. Ieriki Ieriki

I and my People Want to work with Europeans (& other Non us). even Maori, but on equal terms as is our right The Authority I run, is the oldest in NZ, NZ govt & Crown recognized & ratified 2002. historic facts set in concrete.

We want what is Best for the West Coast, as I said To Labour MP here Yrs ago ---The West Coast is an Island and must be treated as such We backed Westpwoer Hydro Project Waitaha The area has my Peoples Name..And we need more power here not rely on from elsewhere where possible Forward thinking..

We are late with this submission was old that should be OK due to probs we had when orig trying to do so after I seen said write up in Grey Star last week.

This is also Official request it be submitted. Go in peace: James; Ieriki Ieriki

Will send other submission form shortly as have to scan it send
