Submission

I write historical features for the Greymouth Star, and help administer westcoast.recollect.co.nz, a website with over 20,000 historic West Coast photos.

I have a passion for history.

I am concerned about the lack of attention given to heritage sites and buildings in the draft plan.

I fully endorse sites added in the draft: Waiuta Historic Place, Waipuna Station Homestead, Blackwater School, Runanga Miners Hall, Remains of Taylorville Wallsend Swing Bridge, Heatherbell Hotel, Cobden Rail Bridge, Regent Theatre, St Patricks Presbytery, Dixon Park Band Rotunda, Magnolia at Atarua, and Lawsons Cypress, Oak and Liquid Amber - Blackball

However, there is a large list of sites which have not been included.

In the Greymouth area alone, these include the Greymouth Star on Werita St, the old Hannan and Seddon law building on Werita Street, heritage trees at Dixon Park; trees off Kilgour road in the Coronation Domain reserve; the fountain outside the Grey District Council; the goldmining tunnels of the Woods Creek track at Rutherglen; Taramakau rail bridge; payroll robbery memorial at Runanga; Cobden gun emplacement; WWII pill box at Blaketown tiphead; Londonderry rock at Kumara; the old greenstone mine remains at Mt Griffin ; Dillons Hut up the Taipo (the old Dillon homestead); hotpool remains just near Gloriavale; Nelson Creek tunnels and swing bridge.

I have two concerns:

* consultation was done with groups in Ross and Reefton. What about the rest of the West Coast?

* there appears to have been no resource to get feet on the ground and look at omissions.

I am not a trained historian but one needs to be brought in to do a proper assessment.

Does Heritage NZ have a role?

Thousands have been spent on SNAs - does heritage not matter?

I strongly feel a once in a generation chance is being missed to protect important heritage sites and trees.

Thank you for your time,

Laura Mills
